

Pathways to Family Peace:

Men's Non-Violence Videoconference Program

A “live” videoconference men's non-violence program option for court ordered domestic violence offender groups. Pathways to Family Peace uses the Duluth Model's “Creating a Process of Change for Men Who Batter” curricula and the addendum curricula entitled, “Addressing Fatherhood with Men Who Batter” (Scaia, Connelly, & Downing, 2007).

FOCUS: Non-violence in Intimate Partner Relationship and Parenting

REQUIREMENTS

- One intake assessment
- 27 week session program
- 90 minutes per session
- Requires participants to be available and participate at a pre-determined day and time each week
- Active participation and reflection

FEES

- Intake Assessment fee: $25
- $10 per session for unemployed participants or participants on government assistance
- $15 per session for part-time employed participants
- $20 per session for full-time employed participants
- Ability to pay electronically using PayPal or an app such Venmo or Cash App

PROGRAMMING

- Uses reflective exercises, seeks accountability, and uses video
- Meets court ordered programming requirements
- Co-facilitated by a male / female co-facilitator team
- Addresses intimate partner relationships and parenting

Pathways to Family Peace: A Men's Non-Violence Videoconference Program is NOT:

- A self-paced online educational course with a pass/fail option or test at the end
- A pre-packaged on-line “educational module” program

Technology, privacy, and internet requirements:

- Participants must have a tablet, desktop computer or laptop to use. Participants cannot use cellular phones.
- Use of a headset with a microphone and a webcam.
- Reliable internet connection for video/audio. Participants cannot use their cellular data.
- A confidential physical space where participants have no one else in sight or sound of

For more information or to sign-up, please make contact by:

pathwaystofamilypeace@gmail.com

Phone or text: 218 - 506 - 0116

<http://www.minnesotaironwoman.com/pathways-to-family-peace.html>